

You can use regular copy paper, or experiment with larger sheets of paper.

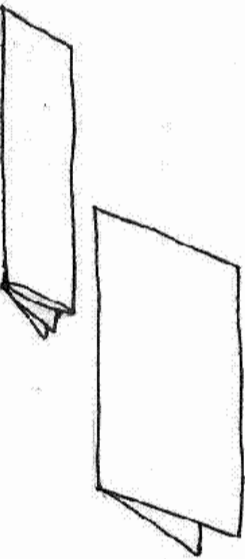

TINY BOOK

This is a very easy, very quick small book to make.

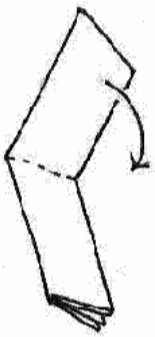

Make your own mini book. Then, use this book making technique to make the Mini Tongue Twister Book on the next page.

1. Fold a piece of paper in half width-wise. Then fold it again in the same width-wise direction.

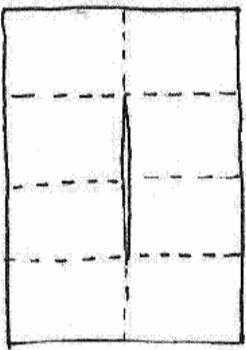

2. Fold the paper in half in the opposite direction.

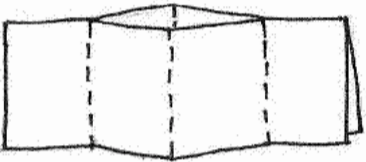

3. Open to a half sheet. Starting from the folded edge, cut along the crease. Stop where the crease lines intersect, as shown.

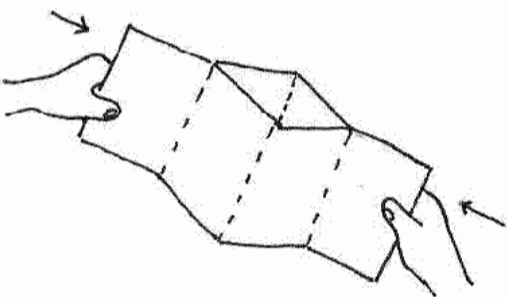

4. Open the paper all the way.

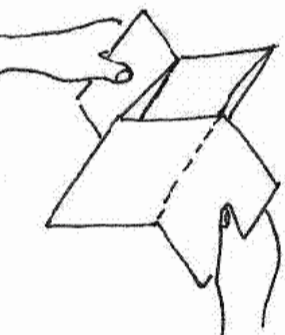

5. Fold the paper lengthwise.

6. Hold the edges as shown and push them towards the center. Keep pushing until the center section meets.

7. Fold the pages closed to form your book.

LISTS ● ● things to write in your TINY BOOK

Your TINY BOOK has 6 pages. Here are some ideas for something to write on each page. (Write the title on the front).

It is fun to make lists with friends!

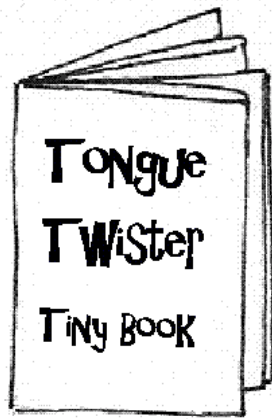

- 6 things that kids do better than adults
- 6 new flavors of ice cream (for fun, make alliterations: Pineapple-Pickle, or Gravy-Grape, or Broccoli-Banana)
- 6 words that make you cold (or hungry or scared, etc.)
- Thematic lists: "Blue Things", "Slow Things", "Warm Things"
- 6 things we should always say "yes" to
- 6 impossible things we'd like to do (fly, be invisible, etc.)
- 6 pets we'd love to have
- 6 pets we'd NEVER want to have
- 6 things we dream about
- 6 presents for a friendly giant
- 6 things friends fight about
- 6 things I'd miss doing if I was a fish
- 6 things a fish would miss if it was me

Send your ideas into to Hip, Hip Hooray to be published in the next issue!

MAKE A TINY TONGUE TWISTER BOOK

Using the directions on the previous page for making a Tiny Book, turn the tongue twisters on the next page into a Tongue Twister Tiny Book. Challenge your friends to say any of those tongue twisters ten times fast!

Is bug's blood blue?
No, bug's blood's black.

Two witches bought two wrist watches, but which witch wore which wrist watch?

A big bug bit the little beetle, but the little beetle bit the big bug back.
